Same issue, purchased the game and it does not install.. gameguard has stop working GG redfox. This game is actually quite a but of fun, and at a little over 5 bucks it's not a big risk if you find out you don't enjoy it. There are some things to note; like obviously you need a VR headset to work as without it you're not going to be able to do anything, there are some minor bugs (like sometimes debris will remain on the screen longer than they're supposed to, but it's more of a niggle than an actual annoyance.), and some people might find this repetitive, but those people probably don't have souls so it doesn't really matter.

I love the beginning of the game; you're in this cool little room with a bunch of diplays and it really feels like you're there, the scaling of that first room is done really well! Also, I like that you can just hop on it and there isn't a huge cutscene waiting for you, you can just immediately PLAY! I know that tends to annoy me, especially when game studios remove the ability to skip cutscenes - grr! So yay, thankfully I don't even have to deal with that with this little game. There is an optional tutorial which I strongly suggest everyone goes through at least once, it will help you get your bearings and understand what you're supposed to do! However, if you're one of those "I don't need no dang tutorial--I'm a rebel!" sorts then remembr, the tutorial is optional and you can just jump in and figure things out on your own if you so choose to. (Honestly though, just do the tutorial, it's short and pretty helpful.)

Next the actual play-experience! It's pretty surreal, you're basically floating in space, surrounded by all kinds of debris floating around you, and it's your job to destroy as much debris as you possibly can. There's asteroids, aliens, lasers, boss fights, and things you can collect from the debris to up the ante on your laser; more destructive power? Yes, please.

Lastly, the difficulty will always keep increasing to keep you on your toes. So there will be more enemies, more lasers threatening to destroy you, and more boss fights as you continue on within the game. I was surprised by how much I actually enjoyed this, but enjoy it I did!

Something very important to keep in mind; you're literally in the middle of all this debris which means some of it will be super close to your personal space, the natural inclination is to move away... so keep away of where you are moving within your PLAY AREA, because it is easy to lose yourself in the game and start moving away from your designated play zone and start knocking yourself and your VR gear into the walls.

TL:DR - It's like stepping into those old arcade games, but now you're IN it, surrounded by it. It's fun, simple, and at 5.99 pretty dang affordable. Definitely recommended

. A truthful depiction of the struggles of making it in the wine industry. Fun and worth the price, although it could use some work. Not a perfect viticulture and oenology simulator, and could use some more depth, but I enjoy it.

A few nitpicky points:

I think it's far too easy to lose the game, a few bad vintages in a row and you're likely bankrupt.

Oak as the first tier fermenter rather than Steel is a bit wierd considering how expensive it is these days.

Limited Varietals and Limited use of them. With only Cab. Sauv, Sauv. Blanc, Syrah/Shiraz, Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Merlot, the game feels a bit much like an exercise in International Varieties, No Pinot Grigio/Gris, no Cab Franc, No Muscat, No Semillon, no Petit Verdot, no Chenin Blanc, no Gewurztraminer, no Riesling, no Verdelho.

No Blends. It's an important part of the wine industry, come on, GSM, Meritage, Bordeaux?

There's no ability to mitigate faults, like using overripe grapes to make dessert wine, Vin Jaune, or Brandy

I'd like to see a system for Sherry but I feel like that's a bit much in terms of depth.

I'd like to see a system where you can sell grapes to another producer or buy someone else's grapes for your own, but that might be going a bit too far.

The Grape tiering and soil tiering doesn't really make a great deal of sense in my opinion, the Terroir doesn't really change any characteristic of the grape because all varietals are locked to a specific soil type. Some of my favourite Shiraz is grown in Clay.. Best even in $15.. Took me two hours to get the pun.

More seriously, this is a great side-scrolling brawler for those who have a hard time with regular brawlers like Streets of Rage and Double Dragon. The focus being defensive really makes a difference, and I love that you can set several options to tailor the game to your playstyle.. There should really be a neutral button for games like these. It's not a bad game, it's not great either. It's a fun little budget game. It plays like an old school arcade PC shooter like Duke Nukem, Blood, FEAR or Doom. Take your pick. It's got nice atmosphere, great assortment of guns, lots of blood and gore but after a while the game gets a bit repetitive. Still, it's not a bad game. If you see it on sale, get it. It's usually on sale for $1 or less. 6.5V10 for me.. probably the coolest looking armor in the game.IT LOOKS AWESOME.. I've gone through everything on this game now. Whoo, what a journey.

As you might have guessed, I found it worth finishing. It seemed like each choice was well thought out and added appropriate depth.

If you've ever played The Fruit of Grisaia, this is kinda a similar idea regarding story progression. The plot's completely different though, making this a pretty cool concept as far as Steam type games go. It also made me think a bit, especially once you get into the 'inter-story' by connecting the dots across what happens with everyone.

Would recommend, please give it a shot if you're on the fence.. A PUBG parody but it's still somehow better than PUBG

Can absolutely recommend. It's charming, it's fun, it's exciting and it offers good puzzles and great platforming. You can watch the full review here. Nice little stardust type shooter, accompanied by a good trance\techno type soundtrack, might take a while to get used the controls, as there's alot going on at the same time!

The difficulty is about right and the ship\weapon upgrades do help you pull through each level.

I like it but I'm an old asteroids\invaders nerd. Kind of a 2015 asteroids\super stardust makeover but a good one :\)

. Alien: Isolation - Lost Contact is a lot like Alien Isolation - Safe Haven. If you liked Safe Haven you will probably like this. It contains another "salvage" map that has more variety than the other survival maps. I recommend it to fans.

<http://store.steampowered.com/app/282514/>. i really enjoy the game. it's hard to play - one mistake and you're dead. That's cool, and the art is stunning i love the dark fantasy.. Do NOT buy this game if you want to use the multiplayer function!

In order to access the multiplayer function you have to have a Gamespy account, however, Gamespy shut down in February 2013 and it's servers with legacy info were shut down in May 2014 so there is NO WAY to use the multiplayer function - the whole point of a D&D game as far as I can tell!

Please ignore the information on Steam about how it is mutiplayer because it is certainly not!. Love the game. I've only fished a few times, but this feels pretty similar.

The only thing is there is a lack of sound effects. There's ambience and stuff, but not a lot of rod noises, or splashing water when you catch a fish.

People always talk crap about fishing games, but they're nice when you wanna relax.. It's \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665in leathericecream, do you expect anything but perfection?. its a very good game its simple and fun to play, the characters are funny and the music complements the game. i recommend this game, all the people in the family can played and its fun wathe how diferent everybody find the solution.
