warmode is different. I am having issues understanding the price tag on this.
For a visual novel, it is subpar in every aspect.

- Dialogue is terrible
- The story is barely bearable
- The art is straight out of a Deviant Art OC artist...

Keep your money or donate it to charity if you want to spend it that bad.

For a full review of this game, you can check me out here:

<https://youtu.be/97CtIaajF70>. The game starts as a quite goodish escape puzzle, but eventually displays a number of unforgivable flaws : some hotspots do not give user any feedback while all the others do. That makes the game unsolvable via logic and ruins the whole point of puzzling.. Just got this game back after several years. (computer prob) Fun as always. Very quick games; easy to learn but hard to win, at least in a large way. Easy to get hooked on. The price is only $10.00, and worth every penny.. i have mixed feelings about this game, because the graphics and soundtrack are dope, but it's awkward to control, which takes the fun out of it... kind of like a pretty girl who won't let you go balls-deep. FUN! - HARD even on EASY - Going to be good - but not much of a game yet.

CENTER view doesn't work. I never was in line with my hud reticule.

Could not reconfigure controls. (xbox) amazingly smooth at this point. Easy to fly. HARD to not get killed. when I died, I never knew why or what got me. I lived longest by coming in high or low and circling the mother ship a few times. shooting missiles rather blindly - because the canon - couldn't be aimed. (I was to high). Somehow my body and plane seemed TO BIG. (as if made for the Rift) and not sized for my VIVE. The screen shots show a smaller cockpit.

STILL for the price - I want to support their effort. Let them make some money to entice them to keep working on it. It's is pretty cool - despite not being able to live for more than a minute or two. The ground work for a game here is and looks great... Now it needs a game. One life? (make it so maybe we get damaged and pretty a button to put out a fire and continue or some such to get 3 lives? I alpha/beta test VR games like CDF starfighter... if you need help testing let me know. I also tested Mervels. (VR game). I say for under 10 bucks - get it to support their efforts.. WE NEED CHAPTER 2!!!! THE CHAPTER 1 WAS SO GOOD!!!. I am in the third episode, and i have to say that this game is really good, you get really immersed and it really feels like your choices really matter, but it would be good if there was some artstyle or backgrounds on it.. I have used many recording software, including, FRAPS, Dxtory, Bandicam, & OBS. While all work very well, i used them all for different things. This got tiresome, very fast. I all of a sudden ended up cutting my loose ends and stuck with Dxtory and Bandicam.

The reason i choose Dxtory is because of its capturing way; It just takes raw data off my graphic's card, thus leaving me with more CPU and a lesser frame drop/loss. Bandicam was the same reason, but for some games, it would cause horrible stuttering. Then awhile passes and i haven't found anything new, then i find PlayClaw.

PlayClaw is amazing. It works just as well as Bandicam or Dxtory - if not better. While the tests i did it shown on a 90+FPS game, after starting to record i would drop to 60 frames, whicxh is pretty good considering Dxtory would drop me too 45-50 and Bandicam 40-50. I find the Windows 8 layout works very for it, and the filesizes are not too bad! There is a "No Compression" option which essentially becomes FRAPS but no quality loss (Fanboyism).

I can only vouche for this Software as a whole.

Story and graphics are awesome just like in the original, but I cannot recommend it.

The people who optimized this game should be fired on spot. Haven't had any problems with CODs before and after remastered, but this one's multiplayer is causing me so much stuttering that it is sad. Have tried a lot of fixes and even contacted activision support, but no progress has been made.

+The game is dead. Only gamemodes that are alive are TDM and HC TDM.

DO NOT BUY THIS GAME!. I can live with bad graphics and nonexistent animations but the dialogue reads like it was written in another language and translated poorly to english.

I can remember playing roguelikes 15 years ago that were better than this and those were for free on newgrounds. Its still fun but there are better examples of the genre out there.. This is art, buy it and play it until you bleed. I really wanted this to be good, and the idea could be good if executed correctly. However, the controls just don't feel right, the UI is clunky, and the battles get repetitive very quickly. Disappointing.. Never buy this trash product. I was stupid enough to be optimistic and buy it regardless of the reviews. DONT BE LIKE ME!!!!!!!!!!!! dont buy this product.. Played on hard, raft got glitched and fell through at night, swim to land, see 5 enemies running full speed at me, yell for friends to help, 6 more enemies appear behind me, die as i hear cannibal screams and friendly laughs.

10V10. soooooo amazing real fireworks i recommend this game. A real singular experience !. I can already tell after .2 hours of playing this game that it is a very fun twin stick shooter. I think someone else described it as being a cross between Geometry Wars, FTL, and Rogue Legacy. That description is very apt.

Procedural generation + Roguelike + upgrades and inventory kept after death prevents this from being repetitive, frantic action makes it fun. A lethal combination that makes it one of the better time-killers available on Steam for $5.
